THE

Resurrection

St. Julie Billiart Catholic Church

From the Desk of Father George

Greetings Parishioners and friends of St. Julie's,

"Lent has ended!"

It is my hope that our series of pre-recorded Holy Week and Easter services brought you comfort, knowing that you were not forgotten and remained in my prayers. As the Sacred Triduum unfolded on your screens... and Easter now dawns with Alleluias and songs of joy we remember to be people of hope. In our isolations we MUST hear that:

"He is Risen and is Living by our Side."

It is Easter Sunday and God's great love for us, through Christ, is the hope and promise of an unending Easter when we too will rise from the grave. Every day during this pandemic we are to re-awaken our Easter faith... a faith that is confronted with the cross. Repeat to yourself:

"Do Not Be Afraid in the Storm"

It is through the cross of Christ that we are healed... we are redeemed... we are embraced. Cast your anxieties unto the Lord and pray regularly and often for an end to the storm. Remember those who have died and those who grieve in the silence of these days. Pray for those on the front lines in hospitals, police and first responders. And now, add your additional petitions to be laid before the Lord!

Today is a great feast! As a people of faith, our call to conversion must not end with the consumption of chocolates and festive foods. Conversion is ongoing. It requires a heart steadfast in the Resurrected Lord. As we celebrate the forty days of Easter, keep on giving and loving with hearts renewed.

I would like to express my deepest appreciation to the handful of persons who ministered in our 'Lear Nagle Recording Studio'. We will continue to come into your homes weekly until it is safe to gather once again. Their commitment to serve and offer their time and talent in these extraordinary times continue to make St. Julie's a beacon of faith and celebration of our Catholicity. Thank You!

On behalf of the entire parish staff, I wish you a Blessed Easter and a year filled with an abundance of hope through our Lord Jesus Christ. Alleluia!

Prayer to St. Michael

Saint Michael, the Archangel, defend us in battle, be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do thou, O prince of the heavenly host, by the power of God, thrust into Hell Satan and the other evil spirits who prowl about the world for the ruin of souls. Amen.

Pope Leo XIII (1810-1903)

Dear Parishioners of St. Julie's,

We would like to thank you for your generous donation of religious items to our mission. They will be put to good use by other churches, convents, and religious organizations. Wishing you good health & blessings,

Catholic Home Mission Appeal

Right now over 40% of dioceses in the United States are considered mission territories because they are unable to fund essential pastoral work needed in their communities. Your support funds religious education, seminary formation, lay ministry training, and other programs that build vibrant faith communities right here in the United States. Please be generous. More information can be found at sss.usccb.org/home-missions.

Easter Candle

The new 2019 Paschal-Easter candle has been donated by Steve and Jane Herbcha in memory of the Herbcha & Lovas Families.

Prayer to End Abortion

Lord God,

I thank you today for the gift of my life. I rejoice that you have conquered death by the Resurrection of Your Son, Jesus. I beg you to spare the lives of all the unborn babies that are in danger of abortion. Through Christ our Lord, Amen.

FORMED

During this time, many of us are physically separated from our parishes and communities. We are happy to provide opportunities for you to connect and pray with the Universal Church to enrich your observance of these Holy Days.

Be sure to share the link formed.org/faithathome with friends and family not yet on FORMED to get them started with a complimentary subscription.

Pray for us. We are praying for you! — The FORMED Team

May the peace of our Lord be with you today and always.

"Do not be afraid! I know that you are seeking Jesus the crucified. He is not here, for he has been raised just as he said. Come and see the place where he lay. Then go quickly and tell his disciples, 'He has been raised from the dead, and he is going before you to Galilee; there you will see him.' Behold, I have told you."

A Prayer to Combat the Coronavirus Pandemic

Most Merciful and Triune God,
 We come to You in our weakness.
 We come to You in our fear.
 We come to You with trust.
 For You alone are our hope.

We place before You the disease present in our world.
 We turn to You in our time of need.

Bring wisdom to doctors.
 Give understanding to scientists.

Endow caregivers with compassion and generosity.
 Bring healing to those who are ill.
 Protect those who are most at risk.

Give comfort to those who have lost a loved one.
 Welcome those who have died into Your Eternal Home.

Stabilize our communities.
 Unite us in our compassion.
 Remove all fear from our hearts.
 Fill us with confidence in Your care.

(mention your particular concerns and prayers now)

Jesus, I trust in You.
 Jesus, I trust in You.
 Jesus, I trust in You.

Amen.

Prayers of the Faithful

On this holiest of days, when we celebrate Jesus' resurrection from death to new life, we ask that God bring new life to us, those we love, and the whole world.

1. For the Church, that we may proclaim the hope and promise of Christ's resurrection in everything we do, we pray. . .
2. For our Holy Father, Pope Francis and for the Church of Cleveland that the Holy Spirit will give all leaders a spirit of wisdom and counsel to discern God's will, we pray. . .
3. For those entrusted with leading their countries, that they may work to bring peace to nations ravaged by war and prosperity to areas devastated by poverty, we pray. . .
4. For all whose lives are threatened by violence, chronic illness, Covid 19 virus, or sudden trauma, that in their ordeal they may be embraced by God, we pray. .
5. For all of us in this assembly, that we may always rejoice in the Lord's resurrection and realize the salvation he won for us, we pray. . .

For the eternal glory of our beloved dead, especially St. Julie Billiant Parishioners

For all the prayers that we hold in the silence of our hearts; for all our intentions spoken and unspoken, we pray. . .

Sharing the Gospel

It was very early in the morning on Sunday. The tomb stone was rolled away. Jesus was gone. All that was left inside were the strips of linen cloth. When John and Peter saw it, they were amazed. They did not understand all the promises the prophets wrote about Jesus yet. However, they knew he was alive. He had risen from the dead!

Prayer

God, I thank you for bringing Jesus back to life.

Sharing the Gospel

Mary Magdalene was surprised when she found the empty tomb of Jesus. She ran and told Peter and John that his body was gone. Peter and John ran to the tomb. They found no body, just strips of cloth. One piece was the cloth that covered the face of Jesus. Peter and John knew that Jesus was not in the grave, even though they did not understand what it meant to rise from the dead.

Prayer

Jesus, you died and rose from the dead so I can share your life on earth and in heaven. Thank you.
