13th SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

So he went in and said to them, "Why this commotion and weeping? The child is not dead but asleep." - Mk 5:39

From the Desk of Father George

Greetings Parishioners and friends of St. Julie's,

Having crossed again to the other side of the lake, the synagogue official named Jairus falls to the feet of Jesus and pleads for the health of his daughter who is at the point of death. Before Jesus can arrive at Jairus' house, people arrived to say that the girl has died and that it is too late... but Jesus has other plans! He raises the little girl from the dead and restores her to her parents. Of course, they were all astounded... but who wouldn't be?

I am sure that many of us have prayed that it is not true when we receive the unexpected news of someone's death. We use phrases like: "I can't believe he/she is gone" or an "Oh, No!" in utter anguish. It is normal to feel that pain and more. If we had no pain, how would we know we had loved?

Today's Gospel miracle can speak to us in many ways. Jesus is the Son of God - recognized and revered by the synagogue official. Jesus once again encourages an embrace of faith... and Jesus finds himself first mocked and then held in astonishment. How have you revered Him this week? Where has the gift of faith enabled you to face a difficult task or make a difficult decision... to trust that God is there! How have you doubted what God can do?

Recognizing the love of God and Christ among us is not a difficult task. It simply takes faith... the same faith that raised the synagogue official's daughter from the dead. Is the love of Christ in your heart? Do you make decisions out of love or out of fear of punishment? Pray this week for the grace to be filled with grace.

During this Ordinary Time of the year, listen carefully to the Scriptures. They offer us the occasion to reflect trust of God in our own lives and to be bearers of that message to all we meet. Don't let summer pass you by without expanding your arsenal of faith!

Fr. George

Jesus said to the synagogue official, "Do not be afraid; just have faith." When they arrived at the house of the synagogue official, he caught sight of a commotion, people weeping and wailing loudly. So he went in and said to them, "Why this commotion and weeping? The child is not dead but asleep."

Christmas in July for Birthright of Lorain County

Our annual Christmas in July for Birthright will begin next weekend. The tree with gift suggestion ornaments will be in the vestibule. Birthright uses these items to help assemble Layettes for babies whose mom has come to Birthright for encouragement in her pregnancy. Our continued support of Birthright is very important, they depend on St. Julie's to help restock the shelves after the events of the past year. Birthright will provide over 200 Layettes during the year.

Please return your gifts by the weekend of July 25.

PUZZLE

Help Jesus get to the sick little girl.

MISSION

Jairus knew that Jesus could help him. Write down three things that you are afraid of, and ask God to help you.

GROWING WITH THE Gospel CYCLE B

COLOR

Read the Gospel of the week and color the image.

GOSPEL

In today's Gospel reading, Jairus asked Jesus to come to his house. The daughter of Jairus was dying, and he knew Jesus could make her well again. While they were walking to his house, she died. Did Jesus give up? No way! Jesus told Jairus not to be afraid, but to keep believing that Jesus could help her. Jesus was even stronger than death. He walked into the house, held her hand, and told her to get up. Jesus admired the faith Jairus had.

PRAYER

Dear God, you are even stronger than death. Help me to have faith in you like Jairus had. Amen.

DRAW

Draw a picture of Jesus and the daughter of Jairus holding hands.

GOSPEL

In today's Gospel a little girl was so sick that people thought she was dead. However, Jesus said she was just asleep. He held her hand and said, "Get up, little girl." Every day you work hard doing chores at home and learning at school. If you are tired and do not want to get out of bed, Jesus will hold your hand and say, "Get up and enjoy the day."

PRAYER

Lord, help me get out of bed quickly to learn about your world.

DRAW

Draw a little girl in bed with Jesus holding her hand.
