I N O R D I N A R Y T I M E

"Do not recline at table in the place of honor.
A more distinguished guest than you may have been invited." - Lk 14:8bc

From the Desk of Father George

Greetings Parishioners and friends of St. Julie's,

Most likely, it is a safe assumption that many - if not all of us - wear more than one hat in life. Some of our titles are mom, dad, teacher, student, employer, employee, neighbor, friend, coach, or even 'taxi' driver for all the practices and games. Regardless of our title, we have one thing in common: We have all been created in the image and likeness of God, and therefore we are all invited to the banquet table of God.

God's banquet table exists wherever we may be found, and it includes places of honor for every hurting or confused individual. In today's gospel, Jesus calls each and every one of us to be both guest and a server at his table when called upon. Embracing true humility means that our brothers and sisters in Christ may not only share our common experiences, but that they may also have a state of life quite different than our own. Are we willing to welcome all of God's children? Are we willing to sit alongside and to serve without judgment or patronization? Can we do so without the need to be praised? Jesus calls us to recognize the human dignity of every person and to see as God sees.

Fr. George

On this Labor Day Weekend we should not only give thanks for the work that is ours, but also to pray for those who are unemployed and underemployed. Perhaps they are a family member or friend. Perhaps they are strangers sleeping on a bench or under a bridge... or even someone worshipping alongside of us. Regardless of who they are, they are also a child of God. Extend your hand in generosity - not judgment, and honor their dignity as you would have others honor you.

"Do not recline at table in the place of honor. A more distinguished guest than you may have been invited...and the host who invited both of you may approach you and say, 'Give your place to this man,' and then you would proceed with embarrassment to take the lowest place." - Lk 14:8bc, 9
